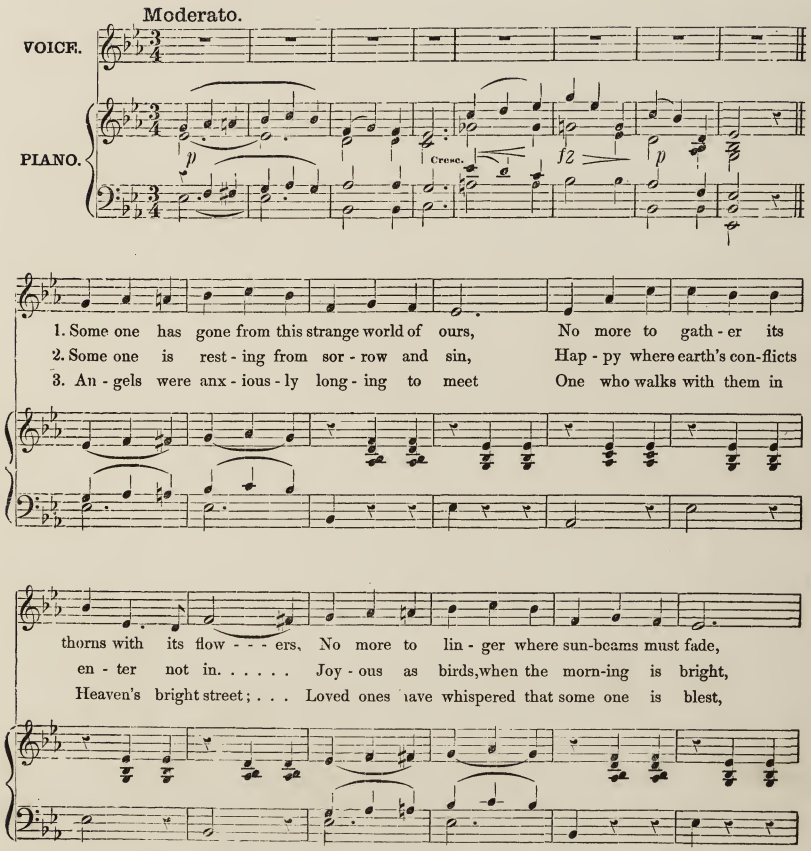
E. N. CATLIN'S SONGS.

No. 1.	Ring the Bell Softly.	No. 2.	Red Breast of the Robin.
" 3.	Love among the Roses.	" 4.	Our Long Lost Jenny Gray.
" 5.	Sunshine has come again.	" 6.	Glad Tidings from Loved Ones.
" 7.	Please buy my last Paper.	" 8.	My Darling Mignonette.
" 9.	Aileen my Darling.	" 10.	Little Lone Daisy.
" 11.	Since last I stood beside thee.	" 12.	There's a Kiss waiting for me.
" 13.	Sunny smiles and golden tresses.	" 14.	Softly falls the silvery Moonbeams.
" 15.	When Jennie went maying with me.	" 16.

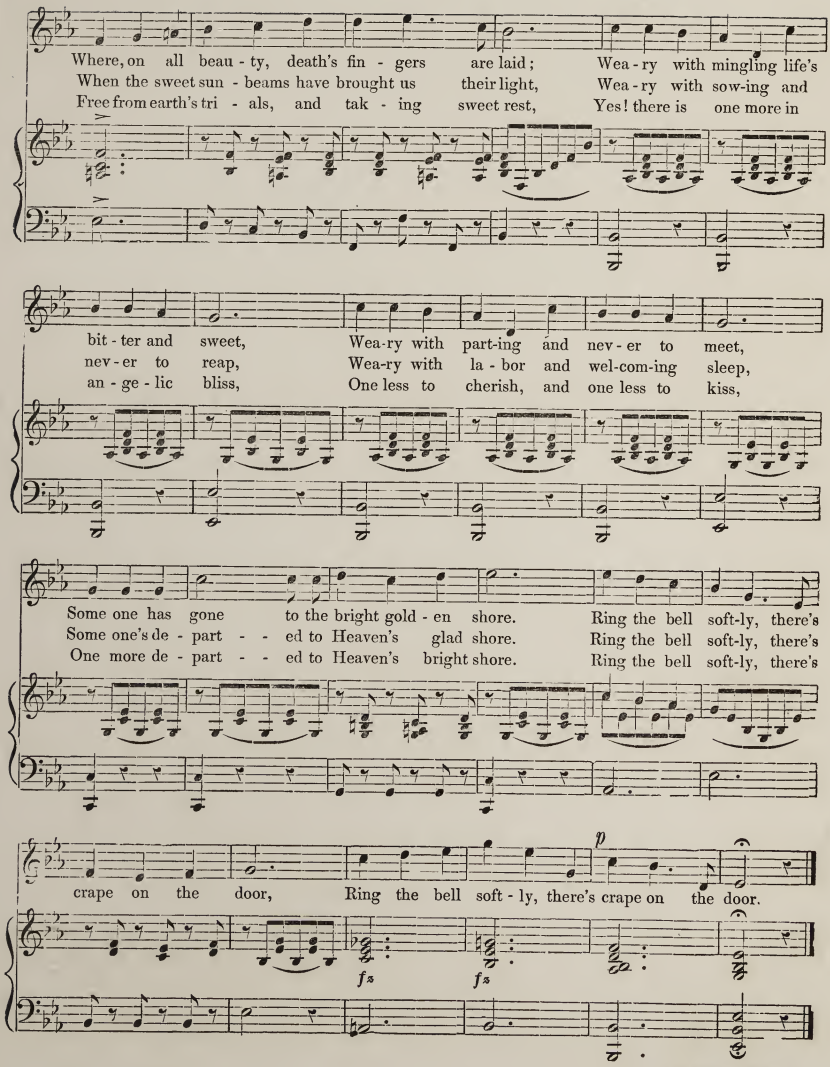
BOSTON:

RING THE BELL SOFTLY.

Poetry by DEXTER SMITH. Music by F. N. CATLIN.



Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1898, by G. D. Russell & Co. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.



Where, on all beau - ty, death's fin - gers are laid; Wea - ry with mingling life's
When the sweet sun - beams have brought us their light, Wea - ry with sow-ing and Free from earth's tri - als, and tak - ing sweet rest, Yes! there is one more in bit - ter and sweet, Wea-ry with part-ing and nev - er to meet, nev - er to reap, Wea-ry with la - bor and wel-com-ing sleep, an - ge - lic bliss, One less to cherish, and one less to kiss,
Some one has gone to the bright gold - en shore. Ring the bell soft-ly, there's Some one's de - part - - ed to Heaven's glad shore. Ring the bell soft-ly, there's One more de - part - - ed to Heaven's bright shore. Ring the bell soft-ly, there's p crape on the door, Ring the bell soft - ly, there's crape on the door.
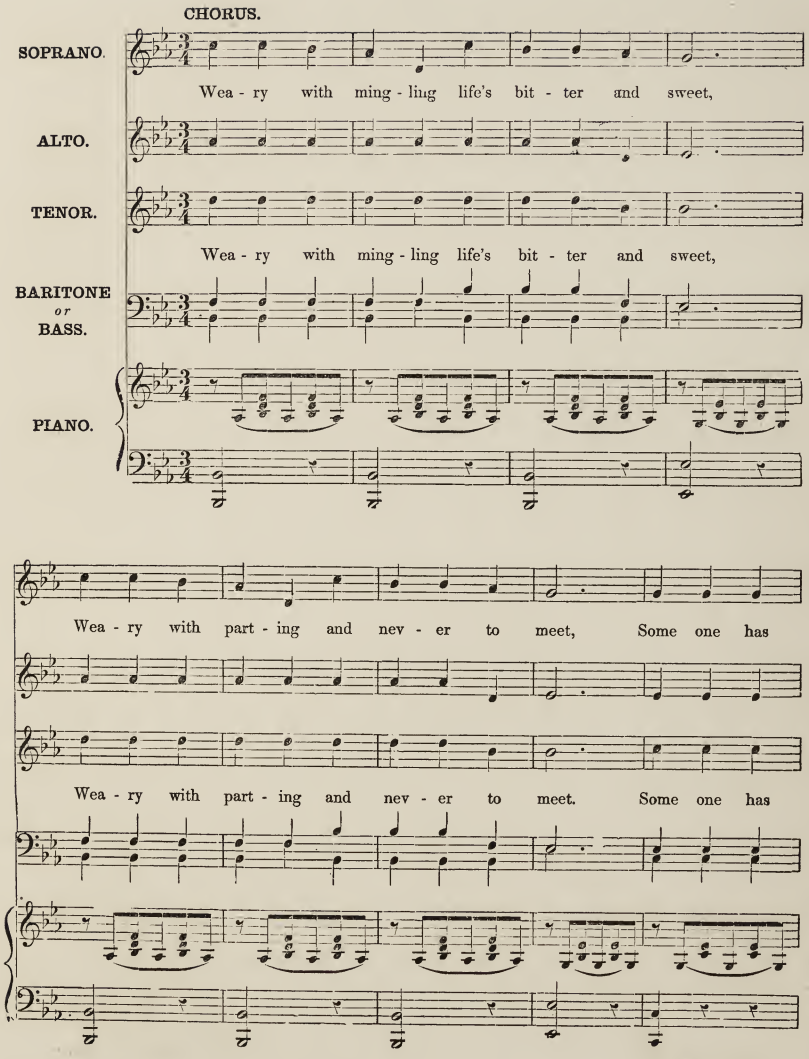
fz
fz



CHORUS.
SOPRANO.
Wea - ry with ming - ling life's bit - ter and sweet,
ALTO.
TENOR.
Wea - ry with ming - ling life's bit - ter and sweet,
BARITONE or BASS.
PIANO.
Wea - ry with part - ing and nev - er to meet, Some one has Wea - ry with part - ing and nev - er to meet. Some one has gone to the bright gold - en shore. Ring the bell soft - ly, there's gone to the bright gold - en shore. Ring the bell soft - ly, there's crape on the door, Ring the bell soft - ly, there's crape on the door.

crape on the door, Ring the bell soft - ly, there's crape on the door.